Dear Friends and Neighbors of Cotting School,

Cotting School needs your help! Since 2007, students in our Work Skills Program have sold new and used books on Amazon.com. This is part of our continuing effort to provide job opportunities for our students.

To date our students have sold more than 5,000 books to customers across the United States and currently have placed 750 books online. As the student-run business continues to grow, they need more books.

Our students can sell any type of book: recipe books, textbooks, children's, fiction or non-fiction, poetry, etc. Feel free to collect books from your family, friends, and neighbors, too!

Please bring any new or used books to our
Cotting School
Book Collection Bin
453 Concord Avenue
Lexington, MA
located next to the main entrance of the school.

For a large number of donations, call for a local pick-up.

Visit us at www.amazon.com/shops/cottingschool.

Thank you!
