

TABLE GOSSIP

MRS RICHARD F. O'NEIL

—Mrs O'Neil is a member of the committee which has in charge the rummage sale to be given in Horticultural Hall on Friday, May 15, from 10 a m to 6 p m, for the building fund of the Industrial School for Crippled and Deformed Children at 241 St Botolph st. Mrs Charles E. Cotting of 404 Marlboro st. chairman, reports that all sorts and kinds of articles have been received. one lady contributing a stable full of furniture. Some very rare antique jewelry, all or which has been picked up in Europe, has been donated, and also some lovely Italian works of art. Many modern books have been given, and a new electric stove, with ovens, a vacuum cleaner, new hats from Paris, and lovely clothes for women and children are among the choice articles which have been donated. This charity has long been one in which Boston has taken a very keen interest and the enthusiasm shown by such large numbers of people is very gratifying. There is imperative need of renovating the building, as 60 percent of the children now in the the school are infantile cases. The appeal to make the rummage sale a success is general and it is hoped that there will be a widespread response. Articles can be sent to Horticultural Hall on Wednesday, the 13th, Thursday, the 14th, and Friday, the 15th. A very large number of prominent women are working for the sale, a few of whom are Mrs C. E. Cotting, Mrs G. S. Parker, Mrs Frank Bemis, Mrs E. L. Kent, Mrs Victor Mapes, Mrs David Sears, Miss Cornelia Hallowell, Mrs Arthur Grannis, Mrs George Lee, Mrs Stephen Davol, Mrs Frank Appleton, Mrs Herbert Tucker, Mrs Edward Beals, Mrs Irving Garfield, Mrs Nathaniel Simpkins, Mrs Hugh Scott, Miss Mary Lawrence and Mrs da Forest Danielson.
