

The school day for Middle School is divided into five class periods. The schedule includes time for academic instruction and review in homeroom groupings, enrichment activities, sports and large group activities. Please read your form carefully, as students will have choices for electives.